GENEALOGY OF THE CARRS

JOHN DAVID CARR FAMILY

The name CARR is said by some authorities to have been derived from the Old Norse god of the winds, Kari, while others contend that it was taken from the Saxon word for a castle or fortress, Caer, meaning rock.

Various spellings of the name which was frequently used in ancient times are Carr, Car, Ker, Kerr, Kerre and Carre.

There were families of the name of Carr in England, Scotland, France at very early dates, and they are believed to have been closely intermingled.

The Carrs of Northumberland, England, the most numerous branch of the family were represented by John Ker as early as 1254; by William and Michael Ker in 1261; by John Kerre of Glantless in 1261; and by William, son of John Carr of Danyscheles, in 1292.

A branch of the Northumberland line was settled at Stackhouse in Yorkshire before the dissolution of the monastaries. In 1468 and 1473 they held large leases of land, and in 1508 one of the line, James Carr, founded the rood chantry in Giggleswick Church.

The Carres of Sleford were also of the Northumberland family. They established themselves in Glendale a few miles from the Scottish border, and some of the members of this line settled on the Scotch side of the border.

At the battle of Neville Cross in 1346 in the War between Edward the Third of England and David Bruce for the crown of Scotland, Sir Thomas Carre was standard bearer on the English side; and in the battle of Towkesbury, Sir William Carre on the Lancaster side was taken prisoner and condemned to death.

Robert Carr (Ker), Viscount Rochester, Earl of Somerset, of the same line of Carrs, followed James the First of England and was his favorite and advisor. James gave him a seat in the House of Lords, knighted him, and aided him to bring about his marriage with Lady Essex. Lady Essex killed her first husband. Robert Carr was implicated but was later exonerated.

Andrew Kerr, ninth Barron of Fennerhurst, Scotland (1450-1543), is said to be the progenitor of the line of Carrs from which so many of the American families of this name trace descent. Andrew was the decendant of a Norman Knight name Karre who went to England with William the conqueror.

Sir William Carr, son of Andrew, lived in London and was the father of four sons - Benjamin, William, George, and James. George was one of the study brand of Puritans that came to America in the "Mayflower" in 1620. His brother, William, took his wife, Susan Rothschild, and their small baby to Plymouth in 1621 in the good ship, "Fortune"' which was under the command of Captain Roger Williams. William Carr and his wife were of adventurous spirit and traveled to Mount Hope Bay, Rhode Island, where they made their home. When William's eldest brother, Benjamin, died in 1636, his two sons, Robert and Caleb, sailed across the Ocean to join their uncle William in Rhode Island.

Later Robert and Caleb emigrated to "Neuport", where they became the owners of large landed estates and were honored with many high public offices.

Caleb married Mercy Vaughn of "Neuport", and was elected Governor of that district in 1695. His children by Mercy were named Nicholas, Mercy, Caleb, Samuel, Mary, John, and Edward, He also had four children by his second wife, Sarah Clarke. They were Francis, James, Sarah, and Elizabeth.

Nicholas, first son of caleb, married Rebecca Nicholson and had eleven children - Nicholas, Joseph, Benjamin, Margaret, Jane, Caleb, Mercy, Robert, Rebecca, Ann, and Thomas.

Caleb, second son of Caleb, had by his wife, Deborah, nine children - John, Mercy, Benjamin, Daniel, Peleg, Deborah, Robey, Rachel, and Sayles.

The third son, Samuel, had only one child, Job.

John, the fourth son of Caleb, married Waite Easton and they had Samuel, Caleb, Ann, John, Francis, and Patience.

Carr 3

The fifth son of Caleb, Edward, had by Hannah Stanton, his wife, Edward, Hannah, Mary, Mercy, Avis, Patience, James, Phebe, and Sarah.

Caleb's brother, Robert, had six children - Caleb, Elizabeth, Mary, Robert, Esek, and Margaret.

Caleb, son of Robert, married Phillipa Greene and had Robert (who died young), Caleb, William, Robert, Job, Mary, and Phillip.

The second son of Robert, Robert, Jr., had by his wife, Elizabeth Lawton, two children - Robert and Abigail.

Esek, the third son of Robert, and his wife, Susanna, had Mary, Sarah, Elizabeth, Esek, Anna, Martha, Susanna, Margaret, Robert, and Thankful.

One of the first members of the family to settle in Virginia was Thomas Carr who, with his wife, Mary Garland, made his home at Bear Castle, Louisa County. Their son, John, married Mary Dabney and had one son, Thomas. By his second wife, Barbara Overton, John had Mary, Dabney, Samuel, Overton, Garland and Elizabeth.

Dabney Carr, son of John, son of Thomas of Virginia, was a member of the House of Burgesses of Virginia and was amoung the foremost leaders of Virginia in the revolution. He married Martha Jefferson, sister of President Thomas Jefferson.

Other early settlers in New England were Richard Carr, who settled in Salisbury Mass., in 1635, and his brother, George, who carried on a large shipping mill business at Salisbury until his death in 1682.

Descendants of these branches of the family soon spread to all parts of the Colonies and are now to be found in practically every State of the Union.

Amoung those of the Carr family to serve as officers in the Revolutionary War were Caleb of Rhode Island, James of New Hampshire, Jesse of New Hampshire, John of Rhode Island, John of Virginia, John of Maryland, John of Massachusetts, John of Pennsylvania, Joseph of New York, Samuel of Virginia, and Samuel of Massachusetts.

Many Carrs have since distinguished themselves in war and in peace. Amoung these are: Eugene Asa Carr, 1830-1910, army officer of New York; Joseph Bradford Carr, 1828-1895, military officer of New York; Lucien Carr, 1829-1915, archaeologist of Missouri.

The Christian names which have descended most frequently through generation after generation of the Carr family are Nicholas, Caleb, Benjamin, John, William, and Samuel.

There are several different coat-of-arms belonging to the Carrs. That which was given to the Northumberland branch of the family, from which most of the American families are descended, is:

ARMS: "Per pale gules and sa. on a chevron invested plain cottised argent, a stag's attires ppr. between two mullets of six points sa., in a base a like mullet of the third."

CREST: "A stag's head erased ppr., charged on the neck with a mullet of six points or.
between two thistles slipped and leaved ppr."

MOTTO: "Tout Droit."

It is interesting to note that the armorial bearings of the French family of Kers is very similar to that given above.

THIRTEENTH DISTRICT

JOHN DAVID CARR, of Newton, Miss., State Senator from the Thirteenth District, was born April 9, 1871, near Stratton, Newton County, Miss. His father, Cicero Anderson Carr, was a native of Georgia, the son of David Stewart Carr and Elizabeth (Hartsfield) Carr. Cicero Anderson Carr lived at Energy, Clark County, Miss., until about 1870, when he moved to Newton County, Miss. He volunteered in the Confederate service before he was 16 years of age and was wounded several times and finally honorably discharged at Meridian in 1865. Senator Carr's mother was Martha Ann (Duke) Carr, the daughter of Welington Duke and Alethia (Gardner) Duke. Mr. Carr attended the common schools, Conchatta Institute, Lexington Normal College and Millsaps College. In 1902 he graduated from the Law Department of Millsaps College. In that year he began a successful practice of his profession in Newton, Mississippi. He was town attorney, Newton, in 1904; Mayor of Newton, 1905, 1906 and 1907; member Mississippi House of Representatives, 1908-12; Circuit Judge 8th District, 1914-18; elected to Legislature 1919, as a member of the House of Representatives and to the State Senate in 1923. He is a Democrat and a member of the W. O. W. Lodge. On June 28, 1896, he was married to Edna Earl Pace, the daughter of John G. Pace and Nancy (Ware) Pace of Newton County, Miss. Of this union six children, four boys and two girls were born, none of whom are living. (See Register of 1908, p. 1069.)

Jan. 23, 1990

Dear Jim:

Thank you, thank you for your information on the Steinwinders...I see much work on your part which I take as a labor of love.

You asked about the Carrs. My Uncle Vardaman did a bunch of work ??) on them and I am enclosing my grandfather's branch. I always understood they came from North Carolina. As I was never close to the Carrs I really know very little about them. I do know Papa Carr graduated from Millsaps Law School in 1902. My father was born in 1905. I always liked Papa Carr. He had an office on the same floor of the Thrash Bldg. that Mama did. I would see him occasionally. I did not like Mama Carr. In my whole lifetime she never gave me but one gift. Can you imagine that? as you may well know, mymother disliked her intensely. Bad situation to say the least. Joe and I have talked about it. We both say we are probably good candidates for the psychiatrists' couch. I have two volumes of Pace history (Mama Carr's family was from Lake,Miss.)

If you run across anything about the Carrs I would be interested, but do not go to any trouble or expense.

Take care of yourself so you can finish the Steinwinders. I trust you to do it, not that E. R. Hammond. I get so made about him.

Love,

DAVID STEWART CARR
Born January 19, 1800
Died February 22, 1884
Buried in New Hope Primitive
Baptist Church Cemetery
West of Stratton, Newton County, Mississippi.

David Stewart Carr was born on the 19th day of January, 1800, in the County of Mecklenburg, State of North Carolina, being the son of William Carr. He departed this life in Newton County, Mississippi, on the 22nd day of February 1884, and was laid to rest in the New Hope Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery located Southwest of Union and West of Stratton, Newton County, Mississippi. During his lifetime he was a Deacon in the New Hope Primitive Baptist Church.

So far as we have been able to ascertain/he had one brother, William Stanhope Carr, and we are unable/to ascertain if he had any other brothers or any sisters. William Stanhope Carr was born in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, on the 25th day of December 1804, and departed this life in Butts County, Georgia, in 1886.

The records show that the name was spelled both as Carr and Kerr in North Carolina, but more frequently the name was spelled Kerr until after they left North Carolina when they adopted the spelling of Carr as the family name.

The father of David Stewart Carr and William Stanhope Carr was William Carr whose exact age at the time of his death is not known, however on the tombstone in the Bucatunna Baptist Church Cemeter in Clarke County, Mississippi, we find this inscription: "Sacred to the memory of William Carr, who departed this life, December 25, 1848, aged about 80 years". It is not known if he came to Mississippi with his sons or not, but if not, he soon followed as he died in Clarke County, Mississippi. In this same cemetery there are the graves of Benajah Carr and Margaret Carr Beddingfield, two of David Stewart Carr's children.

David Stewart Carr and William Stanhope Carr left Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, with their families in 1830 in a wagon train with other families. They first stopped at Milledgeville, Georgia, to register for it was required of those entering the Indian Territory to register at the capitol which, at that time, was located there. After registering they came on and stopped in Henry County, Georgia, and were enumerated in the 1840 Federal Census in Butts County, Georgia. David Stewart Carr's wife, Margaret Duffy Carr, died on the 11th day of January 1842 and was laid to rest in the church cemetery at Indian Springs, Georgia. After her death David Stewart Carr was united in marriage to Elizabeth Ann Hartsfield on the 12th day of October 1842 in Georgia.

To theunion of David Stewart Carr and his first wife, Margaret Duffey, there were born ten children, and to his second marriage, he and Elizabeth Ann Hartsfield Carr, there was born six children.

In 1848 David Stewart Carr moved to Clarke County, Mississippi, and lived in a small community near Energy, which is now near where one of the most productive oil fields in Mississippi has been brought in. He had seven sons who served in the Civil War. One son died in the hospital at Franklin, Tennessee, from wounds received in battle.

During the latter part of the 1860's David Stewart Carr and wife, together with the remaining unmarried children moved to Newton County, Mississippi, and settled in the Erin Community in the

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF HELEN MAUDE CHERRY, LATE OF THE CITY OF OTTAWA, COUNTY OT CARLTON, ONTARIO, CANADA, DECEASED., 803465-0

September, 19~~9~~54:

I learned for the first time that my father had a sister named Helen Maude Cherry who lived in Ottawa, Canada while on leave from the R.C.A.F. Although I was interested in finding out more about my aunt, I had to report to Montreal with orders to embark for Germany.

September, 1955:

When I returned from Germany, I called my aunt and visited with my paternal grandfather at their residence at 46 Kenora St., Ottawa. We had dinner several times during the six weeks I spent waiting to be discharged from the service. My aunt told me that she had been married to a contractor, lived in Florida for a while, and was subsequently divorced and had returned to Canada to care for my grandfather.

I felt it was strange that my father used the surname Carr while my grandfather's name was Walmesley. My aunt was reluctant to discuss the subject and it appeared that there had been some unknown personal reason for his change of name.

June, 1995:

I had a short visit with Helen Maude Cherry. At this time she was living alone in the house on Kenora Street. She told me that my grandfather had died in 1965.

1975-1985:

I made several attempts to contact my aunt during this time period. ALthough the phone was still listed in her name, she did answer my calls nor did she respond to cards or a telegram I sent.

April, 1993:

I made a final attempt to contact my aunt. The phone was no longer listed under her name. I searched the Ottawa tax records and found that the house had been listed for sale for two years by Royale Lapage Realators. Sales representatives of the company (Mary Linsey and Robert Black) stated that the house was purchased by Claudio Zuccarine and his sister Sylvian Bacon.

Carr 42

The house sold for $146,000.

I also learned that the proceeds from the sale of the house had reverted to the Public Trustee due to the fact that Helen Maude Cherry had died intestate with no known heirs.

I wrote a letter to Mary Oake, Q.C. informing the Public Trustee that I believed that my sister Susan W. Higgins, nee Carr and I were Helen Maude Cherry's only living bood relatives.

July, 1993:

I now started the process of attempting to prove that I was Helen Maude Cherry's nephew. I began by attempting to obtain a birth certificate for my father, Thomas Edward Walmsley, a.k.a. Thomas Edward Carr. My father had told me that he had been born in Deal, County of Kent, England. I began with a search of the records in the County of Kent between the years 1901 to 1905. The Registrar's Office was unable to find any entry under the name of Thomas Edward Walmesley.

I then wrote to the Registrar General's Office O.P.C.S. Smedley Hydro Birkdale Southport PR8 2HH which has records for births, deaths, and marriages for all of the U.K. On August 16, 1993 I received a letter from the Office of the Public Trustee (Mary L.Oake) that stated that due to the fact that at this time there was no legal proof of birth for my father under the name of Thomas Edward Walmesley, it was unclear that my sister and I were related to Helen Maude Cherry. After my discussion with my father and several meetings with my aunt, I had every reason to believe my sister and I were her neice and nephew.

September, 1993:

In the chance that I had been mistaken about the date of my father's birth, I again contacted the Superintendent Registrar's office and asked them to extend the dates of search for the years 1904 to 1914 which also produced negative results.

May, 1994:

I sent to the Registrar General, Thunder Bay, Ontario for a marriage license for my mother and father. (Thomas Edward Carr and Taimi Neminen). I received the marriage license on July 21, 1994. I learned that my father's age was 25 at the time of his marriage and that my grandmother's maiden name was listed as Maude Ethel Kerrigan.

September, 1994:

I applied for a death certificate for my grandfather (Frederick Thomas Walmesley which was received and handed over to the Public Trustee. When I applied for a copy of a marriage license for my paternal grandmother and father, I was directed to the Archives of Ontario which can provide documentation for marriages that occured more than 80 years ago.

November, 1994:

I applied for death certificates for Maude Ethel Walmesley and Helen Maude Cherry. These were received and turned over to the Public Trustee.

I went to Ottawa and visited Beechwood Cemetery. I researched the burial records and learned that Frederick and Maude Walmesley were listed as the parents of a stillborn baby girl who was also interred in the Beechwood Cemetary in 1904. Upon learning this I knew that my father had been born in Canada rather than in England as he had claimed. This accounted for the fact that I was unable to locate any record of his birth in the U.K.

December, 1994:

I applied for a birth certificate for my father in the name of Thomas Edward Walmesley.

March, 1995:

I received a notice of incomplete application re: birth certificate for my father because a proof of death was required and event date of five year period to search. I returned notice supplied information to the effect that my father had disappeared in 1957 and had never been seen or heard of since that time. I relayed the five year period of search was 1904 to 1909 based on what I had learned at the Beechwood Cemetary.

April, 1995:

I received a letter from the Public Trustee (Toronto) referring to a meeting I had with Louise Boston on April 21, 1995. The letter confirms receipt of the following documentation:

1. Registration of the Death of Frederick Thomas Walmesley from the Office of the Registrar General
2. Death Certificate for Maude Ethel Kerrigan
3. Record of Marriage for Frederick Thomas Walmesley and Maude Ethel Kerrigan from the Archives of Ontario
4. Marriage Certificate for Thomas Edward Walmesley (Carr) and Taimi Neminen which lists Maude Ethel Kerrigan as mother of Thomas Edward Walmesley (Carr)
5. Birth Certificate for Thomas David Carr
6. Birth and Marriage Certificates for Susan W. Higgins (nee Susan W. Carr)
7. Draft forwarded to Public Trustee of Claimant Affidavit (see attached copy)

Outstanding documentation needed:

1. Birth Certificate for Thomas Edward Walmesley (Carr)
2. Death Certificate for Thomas Edward Walmesley (Carr) or a certificate from Registrar General stating that there is no such record

May, 1995:

I received Notice of Search/Birth re: Thomas Edward Walmesley and was advised there is a record in this office as follows:

Name: Walmesley, Thomas Edward
Registration Number: 1905-05-002572

June, 1995:

As of my final communication with the Public Trustee it was recommended that we hire an attorney to meet the deficiencies in ou heirship claim.

Court File No. Carr 44

ONTARIO COURT (GENERAL DIVISION)

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF HELEN MAUDE CHERRY
late of the City of Ottawa, in the Regional Municipality of Ottawa-Carleton, deceased.

BETWEEN:

THOMAS DAVID CARR, and
formerly Susan Winnefred Carr,

Applicants

- amd -

THE PUBLIC GUARDIAN AND TRUSTEE, as Administrator of the Estate of Helen Maude Cherry, deceased,

Respondents

of
sworn the day of , 199

I, THOMAS DAVID CARR, of the Town of Flint, in the State of Michigan, one of the United States of America, MAKE OATH AND SAY AS FOLLOWS:

1. I am one of the Applicants herein and as such have knowledge of the matters hereinafter deposed to.

2. I am the son of Thomas Edward Carr whose real name given on his birth was "Thomas Edward Walmesley" and I have evidence that will show that he was the brother of Helen Maude Cherry, neē Walmesley, now deceased, and that my father died, or is presumed to have died in 1957, leavingme and my sister as the nearest next-of-kin and hence heirs-at-law of the late Helen Maude Cherry, deceased.

3. Helen Maude Cherry died on June 6, 1988 and her Death Certificate shows her parents to be Frederick Thomas Walmesley and Maude Ethel Kerrigan. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "A" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of a certified copy of the Death Certificate of Helen Maud Cherry. The Public Trustee is the Administrator of Helen Maud Cherry by grant of Letters of Administration issued by the Surrogate Court of the Judicial District of Ottawa-Carleton on October 3, 1988.

4. Maude Ethel Walmesley died in 1948 and her Death Certificate shows that her husband was Frederick T. Walmesley and her father was John Kerrigan. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "B" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of the Death Certificate of Maude Ethel Walmesley.

5. Frederick Thomas Walmesley died on February 22, 1965. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "C" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of the Death Certificate of Frederick Thomas Walmesley.

6. The late Helen Maude Cherry was born Helen Maude Walmesley in 1911. I and my solicitors have attempted to obtain a Birth Certificate for her but the Registrar General's Office in Thunder Bay, Ontario, has not as yet produced one because of a lack of obvious relationship between the name "Carr" and the name "Walmesley".

7. Helen Maude Cherry was one of three children born of the marriage between Maude Ethel Walmesley (neé Kerrigan) and Frederick T. Walmesley; one was stillborn and the other was my father. Not only will Helen Maude Walmesley's Birth Certificate show the names of her parents but the Death Certificate of Frederick Thomas Walmesley confirms that he died on February 22, 1965, a widower, having survived his wife, Maude Ethel Kerrigan, and it was his daughter "Helenne Maude Walmesley" who signed the Statement of Death as the informant. Also, a long time friend of Helen Maude Cherry who also knew her parents as well can confirm that Helen Maude lived with her parents in Ottawa from 1930 and that Helen Maude returned to live with her father at 44 Kenora Street, Ottawa, Ontario, after she divorced her husband, John Ebert Cherry.

8. I also attended at the Beechwood Cemetery in the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario and obtained a historical data sheet for the deceased in the Walmesley family who are buried in this particular cemetery, namely Maude Ethel S. Walmesley of 46 Kenora Street, Ottawa, who died December 17, 1948, Frederick Thomas Walmesley of the same address in Ottawa who died February 22, 1965 according to information provided by Helen Maude Walmesley, his daughter, and also data regarding "infant Walmesley" who is recorded as being stillborn on July 30, 1904, the parents being Frederick and Maude Walmesley as reported by F. T. Walmesley (father). Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "D" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of the historical data obtained from the Beechwood Cemetery with respect to Maude Ethel S. Walmesley, Frederick Thomas Walmesley and Infant Walmesley. While at the Beechwood Cemetery, I took a photograph of the gravestone for Maude Ethel and Frederick T. Walmesley. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "E" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of the aforesaid photograph.

9. There was another child born of Frederick Thomas Walmesley and Maude Ethel Walmesley (neē Kerrigan) namely Thomas Edward Walmesley who was born probably in 1905. I requested a search to be made by the Office of the Registrar General of the Province of Ontario with respect to the registration of the birth of Thomas Edward Walmesley and by letter to me dated May 6, 1995, the Registrar General's office confirmed that there is a record of the birth of a Thomas Edward Walmesley under registration number 1905-05-002572. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "F" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of the letter from the Office of the Registrar General to me dated May 6, 1995.

10. However, the Registrar General's Office has not been willing to release the Birth Certificate for Thomas Edward Walmesley to me or to my solicitors. I am informed by Ian MacKay Thompson, and verily believe, that he made an Application for the Birth Certificates of Thomas Edward Walmesley and Helen Maude Walmesley supported by a special letter, but the Registrar General's Office was not willing to release the Birth Certificates without,

(a) an authorization from the direct next-of-kin; and

(b) proof of death to be proved by the next-of-kin -- unless the death date of an Ontario death (only) is provided.

11. Since the proof of death of Thomas Edward Walmesley, also known asThomas Edward Carr, is presently a matter of legal presumption and since there is no formal Death Certificate readily available to prove his death and since my relationship to Thomas Edward Walmesley and Helen Maude Walmesley is not obvious, it is extremely doubtful that the Registrar General's Office will ever release a Death Certificate to me or my solicitors without a court order. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "G" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of the Application made by my solicitors for the Birth Certificates of the above two persons together with the explanatory letter dated July 18, 1995 from Holmested & Sutton to the Office of the Registrar General and the reply of the Registrar General's office in the form of a Notice to Applicant dated August 14, 1995.

12. The existence of a brother of Helen Maude Cherry can be confirmed by her long-time friend and former sister-in-law, Lorna P. Hoyt, of Ottawa, Ontario. I am advised by her and verily believe that she has known and met Helen Maude Walmesley and her parents when Helen Maude Walmesley was about 20 years of age and that Helen Maude married her brother, John Ebert Cherry, in about 1934 and became Helen Maude Cherry who went to Florida to live with her husband but the marriage broke down, they separated and became divorced and there were no children of this marriage; and that Helen Maude Cherry returned to Ottawa to live with her father; and that Helen Maude Cherry and Lorna P. Hoyt remained friends until Helen Maude Cherry died in 1988 and that Lorna P. Hoyt provided the necessary funds and made all the necessary funeral arrangements for her deceased friend. I am also informed by Lorna Hoyt, and verily believe, that it was common knowledge in the Walmesley circle of family and friends and in the neighborhood that Helen Maude had an older brother but Lorna Hoyt herself did not actually meet him.

13. Furthermore, I have conducted my own investigation of my family tree and both my father and my deceased aunt, Helen Maude Cherry, have specifically told me that my father, Thomas Edward Carr, and Helen Maude Walmesley were in fact brothers and sisters born of the same parents, Frederick T. Walmesley and Ethel Maude Kerrigan, and I believed them when I told them this and I still believe their statements to be true.

14. It was no coincidence that my father while using the name of "Thomas Edward Carr" for the purposes of the Marriage Certificate to my mother on May 5, 1930, gave as his own father's name "Frederick Thomas Carr" (instead of "Frederick Thomas Walmesley") and gave as his mother maiden name, Maude Ethel Kerrigan (which of course was the correct maiden name of Maude Ethel Walmesley the wife of Frederick T. Walmesley and the mother of Helen Maude Walmesley). How, one wonders, would my father have conceived such a name for his mother in connection with the name of Frederick Thomas unless in fact it was his mother's true name. Of course, he had to change the name of his father to be consistent with his own unofficial change of name. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "H" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of my parents' Marriage Certificate being a Marriage Certificate between Thomas Edward Carr and Taimi Neiminen.

15. It is interesting to note that my father gave as his father's birth place "England" which is consistent with Frederick T. Walmesley's Death Certificate and that my father also gave as his own birth place -- England, which is probably not correct as I have subsequently discovered. It is also interesting to note that Thomas Edward Carr gave his age as being 25 years of age in 1930 which would mean that he was born in 1905.

16. I was born on February 15, 1932 in Niagara Falls, Ontario, the son of Thomas Edward Carr and Taimi Neiminen. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "I" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of my Birth Certificate.

17. The other Applicant, my sister, Susan W. Higgins (neē Susan Winnefred Carr) was born on October 25, 1936 in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, of the same parents. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "J" to this my Affidavit is a true copy of the Birth Certificate of Susan Winnefred Carr. My sister married Bernard Higgins and they were subsequently divorced.

18. My sister and I and my parents lived in Sault Ste. Marie for most of my early life. Now produced and shown to me and marked Exhibit "K" to this my Affidavit is a photograph of our family, my father and my mother being on the right and my sister, Susan Winnefred, and myself on the left. I was years of age at the time.

19. It was not until 1954 that I learned from my father that he had a sister named Helen Maude Cherry (neé Walmesley) living in Ottawa on Kenora Street. At the time, I was an airman serving with the Royal Canadian Airforce in the years 1950 to 1955 and he told me about this family connection when I was visiting at home on leave. At the time, his explanation for the change of name was that he was struck by a car while hitchhiking on the highway and suffered a head injury resulting in amnesia and that he started calling himself by the first thing that came to mind, namely "Carr". Although I was interested in finding out more about my aunt, I had to report to Montreal with orders to embark for Germany. In September of 1955, I returned from Germany and I contacted Helen Maude Cherry by telephone and visited with her and my paternal grandfather, Frederick T. Walmesley, at their residence at 46 Kenora Street, Ottawa. By this time, Helen Maude Cherry and my father had been talking to each other on the telephone and she knew that she should expect my coming to Ottawa and my telephone call.

Carr 52

20. I visited Helen Maude Cherry and her father for dinner at her house several times during the six weeks I was in Ottawa while I waited to be discharged from the service. I was advised by Helen Maude Cherry, and verily believe, that she divorced her husband after living with him in Florida and that she returned to care for her father whom I observed was not totally bedridden but somewhat frail. Helen Maude acknowledged me as her nephew and the son of her brother but she was reluctant to discuss my father's early history or to provide any explanation for the change of his name from Walmesley to Carr and my paternal grandfather refused to discuss my father altogether. I do not believe that my father ever had his name formally changed by any legal process.

21. In 1956, my mother died and my father was devastated by her loss and became very depressed.

22. One day in 1957, he came to me and asked to borrow my car and said that he was going to drive to Ottawa to visit his sister, Helen Maude. I gave him the keys to my car and never saw him or the car again. I did warn him about driving at night because he had no night vision. He was a welder by trade and the flashes from the welding impaired his eyesight.

23. After a week or so went by without any word from my father, I telephoned Helen Maude to see if he had arrived from Sault Ste. Marie; she advised me that she had not seen nor heard from him at all.

Carr 53

24. Two weeks after his departure, I filed a Missing Persons Report with the police at Sault Ste. Marie who then put a trace on him throughout Ontario and all of the other provinces and the search produced no sign of my father or any person resembling him and also no sign of my automobile.

25. Moreover, the licence plate was never renewed or transferred and one would expect that if he was alive and still with the car, he would have tried to renew the licence by signing my name to the application or to a vehicle transfer. I have also tried to trace him through his S.I.N. number but there is no evidence of anyone using the S.I.N. number since 1956 onwards. I personally believe that my father committed suicide in 1957 or that he drove off the road by reason of his impaired vision and that his body and car have not been located because they are at the bottom of a lake or at the bottom of a cliff in a deserted forested area.

26. I have also conducted a search at the Registry Office in Kent County and also the National Registry Office in England to attempt to find a Birth Certificate for my father, relying on the information he supplied in his Marriage Certificate and my Birth Certificate that he was born in England. Both English Registry offices have replied that there is no one registered by the name of Thomas Edward Walmesley. (Later I realized that my father probably lied about his place of birth or he thought he might have been born in England because his father came from England and as a result I began a search in Ontario which has produced evidence that there was a Thomas Edward Walmesley registered as being born probably in 1905).

27. In June 1975, I briefly visited Helen Maude Cherry at her home on Kenora Street in Ottawa. In the period from 1975 to 1985, I made several attempts to contact my aunt since the telephone was still listed in her name but she did not respond to my cards or a telegram I sent.

28. In April of 1993, I made another attempt to contact Helen Maude Cherry but the phone number was no longer listed in her name but I discovered that the house had been sold and proceeded to ascertain that the funds had gone to The Public Trustee since my aunt had died intestate without any known next-of-kin.

29. I then proceeded to write to The Public Trustee's office to advise them that my sister and I were the closest living blood relatives of Helen Maude Cherry and have been attempting to provide The Public Trustee's office with the necessary documents to prove our claim but I have been unable to provide them with a Birth Certificate for my father and the office of The Public Trustee has suggested, through its solicitors, that I and my sister bring a court application. The Public Trustee's office has in its possession the Birth Certificate of Helen Maude Cherry and has also commissioned a genealogical report.

30. Consequently, my sister and I are making this application to establish our entitlement to the residue of the proceeds of Helen Maude Cherry's estate. I have also continued to attempt to find a Death Certificate for my father or some trace of him and my car since 1957 up to the present time and have still found no evidence or sign of his whereabouts or his existence.

Dear Sir:

Re: Thomas Carr
And Re: Estate of Helen Maude Cherry, dec'd.

We enclose two Applications for Genealogical Extracts, one with respect to the birth of Helen Maude Walmesley.

We are solicitors for Thomas Carr. He is making a claim to the assets of the Estate of Helen Maude Cherry, formerly Helen Maude Walmesley, who died intestate. He is claiming to be the closest next-of-kin surviving Helen Maude Cherry along with his sister. The Public Trustee's Office has requested a Birth Certificate with respect to Thomas Edward Walmesley (also known as Thomas Carr) and we will also need some genealogical evidence to submit to the court in case The Public Trustee does not accept the evidence of the claim.

Authorization with respect to obtaining a Birth Certificate is not available in this case. The individual, Thomas Edward Walmesley (also known as Thomas Edward Carr) disappeared in 1957 and has not been seen or heard from since. Our client will be bringing an application to have Mr. Thomas Edward Walmesley presumed to be dead.

Also, Helen Maude Cherry (neé Walmesley) died intestate in 1988.

The parents of Thomas Edward Walmesley (also known as Thomas Edward Carr) and Helen Maude Walmesley are deceased. Their father was Frederick Thomas Walmesley who died in about 1965 and their mother was Maude Ethel Walmesley who died sometime in 1948. Frederick Thomas Walmesley and Maude Ethel Walmesley (neé Kerrigan) were both married in September of 1903.

We enclose herewith our cheque in the amount of $30.00 for the genealogical extracts together with the formal Applications. The only information we have is that we know that Thomas Edward Walmesley was born in Ontario and that he was probably born in May of 1905 and there is a register of his birth under registration number 1905-05-002572. In the case of Helen Maude Walmesley, subsequently Helen Maude Cherry, she was born sometime in 1911. Her place of birth is not known although it is quite possible that the children may have been born in Ottawa.

If you require any further documentation, please let us know by fax.

Yours very truly,

HOLMESTED & SUTTON

Hi Else,

I don't have any resources to do this kind of lookup...the only lookups I do are from one cemetery listing I have for Reid's Mills cemetery in Ontario. Either you have me mixed up with someone else or someone has erroneously told people I do this type of look up. I have recently been getting a lot of this type of request. Do you remember where you saw that I did this? I'd like to know so I can correct the source and avoid disappointing people in the future.
Thanks,

I have a patron, Thomas Carr, who is searching (for years) for proof of his fathers relationship to his father. His father changed his name to Thomas Edward Carr when he was an adult. He cannot claim inheritance due him without proof. His father's birth certificate (he has an extract of Original Record): Thomas Edward Walmesley,, born July 18, 1905 in Carleton Co.; Father's name: Frank (Fredk.) Thos. Walmesley, soldier, Mother's name: Maud Ethel Kerrigan, Physician, Dr. Jas. Scayer,

Reg #1905-05-002572. His aunt's birth certificate (photocopy of original): Helen Maud Walmesley, born July 30, 1910, 176 Bell St. (hospital?), in Carleton Co.; Father: Frederick Thos. Walmesley, soldier, Mother: Maud Ethel Kerrigan. Parents were married in Ottawa on Sept 2, 1903. Dr was Dr. Jas. Scayer, Certified by Fredk T. Walmesley, 176 Bell St., Aug 3, 1910. Cert. #014934. Do you have access to 1910 and/or 1920 Census? They most likely lived at 46 Kenora St., Ottawa. He has paid $7000 to attorneys, with no result. The marriage license (he has photocopy) of his parents:
Thomas Edward Carr, taxi driver, age 25, bachelor, Angelican, lists his birthplace as England?, married Taimi Neiminen, domestic, age 18, spinster, Lutheran, married in Sault St. Marie, County of Algoma, Ontario, May 5th 1930. Parents of Thomas Edward "Carr" were given as Frederick Thomas "Carr"? and Maud Ethel Kerrigan. Witness: Mrs. Claire Jarvis. Parents of bride were listed as David Neiminen (Finnish) and Aina Pellas. Registration #2938. Taimi died in 1956 of a heart attack in Sault St. Marie, Ontario. Thomas Carr became very, very depressed. He borrowed his son's car in March or April of 1957 and he said he was going to visit his sister, Helen (Mrs. Ebert Cherry) at 46 Kenora St., Ottawa. He was never heard from again. He disappeared with his son searching for him, using all facilities he could get his hands on as a policeman.
The car was never sold or relicensed, his name and employment # were never used. Taxes were never filed by him. He met his aunt in 1955. She died (copy of her death certificate) June 6, 1988 at Ottawa Civic Hospital, age 77. She was divorced from John Ebert Cherry. She was an instuctor at a dance school. Her father on the death certificate is Frederick Thomas Walmesley. Sister-in-law, Lorna P. Hoyt, (sister of John Ebert Cherry) was the informant on the death certificate. Grandmother, Maude Ethel Kerrigan Walmesley belonged to a society "Rosicrucian" an ancient mystic order. His sister has strong physic powers and makes her living at it in the Yukon. This is a background on this family. Can you suggest anyway to prove, more than from these records, the relationship? The public trustees, a division of the Ontario government, say this is not enough proof. Please advise if you can help. Thanks so much for "listening."

Hi, I have a patron who is searching in Carlton County, Ottawa, for proof of parents. Do you have a Genealogy Department and census records for 1910 and 1920? If so, do you have someone who can search the index for the names of Frederick/Frank? Thomas Walmesley and wife Maud Ethel Kerrigan. They had a son, Thomas Edward Walmesley born July 18, 1905 in Carleton, delivered by Dr. Scayer. They had a daughter, Helen Maud Walmesley, born July 30, 1910, also in Carleton. If your library cannot help, will you please give me the name of Genealogy Library on Genealogy Society who can. Thank you. Else Martin, Genealogy & Local History Dept., Pascagoula Public Library, 3214 Pascagoula St., Pascagoula, MS 39567

BRANCH MEMBERS:

If you are an Ottawa Branch Member and have any concerns about membership, wish to submit an article for the Branch News, or wish to submit an enquiry to be published in the Branch News or have other concerns, please contact us. The message will be passed on to the appropriate person.

NON-BRANCH MEMBERS:

If you are interested in OGS membership, we will send you an application form by regular mail. Please provide your address. If you are looking for genealogical information please read the general information provided below.

General Information:

Please note that the Ottawa Branch is run by volunteers and we do not do genealogical research.

If you would like a list of researchers in the Ottawa-Carleton area who do genealogical research for a fee, we will provide one.

The Ottawa Branch publication list is available on our web site.
http://www.cyberus.ca/~ogsottawa/ogsottawa.htm
We can also send you an electronic copy of the publication list in WordPerfect 6.0, Word 6.0 or ASCII format.

If you have an OCFA or Newspaper Obituary inquiry please read the OCFA and Death Notices or Obituary Lookups first. These lookups are only accepted by regular mail with payment included.

If you are looking for basic information on doing your own research please access the web sites listed below.
